Attendance Policy Document

This Attendance Policy outlines the guidelines, expectations, and responsibilities of students, faculty, and parents to ensure compliance with the institution's attendance requirements. Regular attendance is critical for academic success and adheres to the policies established by Charotar University of Science and Technology (CHARUSAT).

1. Attendance Policy for Students

Student must pay fees and complete course registration in the E-governance system before the commencement of classes to ensure that his/her attendance is recorded from the first day.

1.1 Attendance Criteria

- Students must maintain at least 75% attendance across all courses combined, with a minimum of 70% attendance in each individual course/subject in theory and practical.
- Eligibility for university examinations (Theory and Practical) requires compliance with the attendance criteria, absence of disciplinary proceedings, and no outstanding fees or dues.

1.2 Continuous Assessment Participation

- Students must maintain at least 75% attendance across all courses combined, with a minimum of 70% attendance in each individual course or subject (theory/practical) during the assessment period, defined as the time between two consecutive assessment components. Only those meeting this requirement will be eligible to participate in continuous assessments, such as tests, quizzes, assignments, internal practical exams, and other academic activities.

1.3 Leave Policy

- Leave will be granted only for major medical cases, subject to recommended by counsellor and approval by the Head of Department. For major medical cases, attendance shall be considered only if the student's application is supported with a medical certificate duly signed by the Medical Officer of Government Hospital with clear recommendations.

1.4 Participation in External Events

- Students must obtain prior approval from the Head of the Department (HOD) before participating in any external academic events organized outside CHARUSAT. Similarly, for participation in internal events, prior permission from the HOD is mandatory. Leaves will only be granted for external academic events and university-level events.
- Event participation requires submission of a certificate and logging the details in the e-governance system for documentation and leave approval.

1.5 Penalties for Low Attendance

- Students with attendance below 75% will face penalties, such as:
- Additional assignments, Extra academic tasks
- Other corrective actions as determined by the faculty
- Non-compliance may impact academic standing and examination eligibility and approval of MYSY Scholarship.

2. Attendance Guidelines for Parents

2.1 Meeting for Low Attendance

- Parents of students with attendance below 75% must meet with the HOD before the next assessment of any subject to discuss corrective actions.

2.2 Parents-Teachers Meetings

- Parents are required to attend Parents-Teachers Meetings if their child's attendance is below 75%.
- These meetings address attendance concerns and academic performance.

2.3 Detention Policy

- Consistently low attendance may result in detention as per university regulations.
- Parents will be informed beforehand to take corrective measures.

2.4 Monthly Attendance Reports

- Parents will receive monthly attendance reports for their child.
- These reports serve as an early warning system to prevent academic issues related to attendance.

2.5 Strict Action for Persistent Irregularities

- Students with recurring low attendance will face stricter actions, including:
- Further academic consequences
- Interventions and corrective measures

2.6 Undertaking Submission

- Students must submit a signed undertaking at the beginning of each semester.
- Parental acknowledgment and signature on the document are mandatory.
